FARMERS, LOOK TO YOUR INTEREST

HARVEST OF 1862.

Haines' Illinois Harvester.

The Agent of this celebrated machine has the pleasure of offering to the farming community the Illinois Harvester, which is manufactured by the well known Haines' Illinois Harvester.

HOME TESTIMONY.

Mr. George Sim has been using one of the above named Harvesters for several years, and has a large farm, and is very satisfied with it, so that I would not ask $500 for it, if I could obtain another of the same kind. I find by experience, that there is less labor saving a $100 per acre in the way of labor, and a great saving in the cost of seed, and in the cost of the most approved reapers. I would not let my grain be put in any other way, as I have offered to put the whole stock free of expense.

SAMUEL MILLIGAN,

Near Terre Haute, May 25, 1862.

I enclose the above.

F. W. MILLIGAN.

One year ago we purchased one of the Illinois Harvesters, and would not dispense with the use of it for any price. We made a careful examination of Mr. Haines' Harvester, and are of the opinion that it is the best.

JOSEPH PECK.

I would not endorse without further say that I would not give $1,000 for it, as it is a good machine.

JOHN RANKIN.

I would not endorse without further say that I would not give $1,000 for it, as it is a good machine.

PETER LYON.

Old Creek Township, Vigo Co., Ind.

Mr. George—Now I have used one of Haines' Illinois Harvesters for several years, and am very satisfied with it. It saves a great deal of labor, and is a good machine.

I have tried several kinds of harvesters, and found this to be the best.

JOHN RANKIN.

I would not endorse without further say that I would not give $1,000 for it, as it is a good machine.

JACOB BROWN.

The above named gentleman is all residing in our city, but two and one-half miles from town, and would like to bring his farm to us, so that we could not afford to sell it to him.

He is a man of great means, and we would like to sell it to him.

JOHN RANKIN.

In addition to the above named gentleman, I have a good many others, and would like to sell it to him.
